Dear Ms. Lakshmi Shankar,

I would like to convey my sincere thanks for the opportunity given to me to be a part of the very structured and highly competently organised event in Women Economic Forum 2020. The involvement, selection of subject, speakers, technology adoption, pre session training - everything was meticulously well planned. I enjoyed being a part of this.

Though I have been participating in many national and international conferences, there was a clear difference in approach and deliberations in Women Economic Forum 2020 from all other conferences. I once again thank you and Ms. Kushboo for all the assistance and guidance given to me to be part of the conference.

My sincere appreciation to all your esteemed colleagues who have certainly spared their very valuable time to put together various nationally and internationally relevant themes, get highly competent and reputed speakers to be part of one great event.

Let our association grow in many other ways and once the Covid situation normalises, I would personally meet your good self and interact.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

K C Ramamurthy
